Introduction

Garmin Service

At Garmin, we provide the very best products that offer superior quality, safety, and operational features at affordable prices.

We recognize that our success depends on our ability to provide outstanding product support. In order to accomplish that goal, we have developed a worldwide network of Authorized Sales and Service Centers. Each Center has met Garmin's stringent qualifications, and is continuously monitored to ensure the best product support for our customers.

What to do if you have a problem

If you have a problem with any of your Garmin products, please contact your local Garmin Sales and Service Center listed in this directory. All Garmin Service Centers have emergency access to equipment and parts 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Operational Assistance

While Garmin has been praised for making advanced avionics that are easy to use, we also understand that proper pilot training is important. We recommend that every pilot receive training in the proper operation of your Garmin Avionics. To help make the most of your training, Garmin provides the following tools:

- Free simulators for some panel mount products available online at www.garmin.com
- Aviation Seminars that focus on the operation of Garmin's latest products. View the latest seminar schedule online at: www.garmin.com/aviation/
- Instructional Videos/DVDs/G1000 PC Trainers and various other computer based training products available for purchase by phone or at www.garmin.com

Warranty

Proper installation and service of Garmin avionics equipment is crucial to their flawless operation. That is why warranty service is only available through Garmin's worldwide network of Authorized Service Centers.
